PARISH PRESS

Dear Parishioners of All Saints: Christmas is past (but not forgotten!) – It was a holy season, and we both enjoyed the Christmas Masses very much. Now we find ourselves well into the New Year. May God be with us in mind, body and soul as we travel through 2018.

Both of us would like to express our appreciation for the many Christmas greetings, generous gifts, and home-baked goodies. They were all accompanied by smiles, kind messages and expressions of gratitude. There were literally too many to count, and we'd like to use this means of communication to express our thanks in return. We are blessed to be serving a wonderful Catholic community. Thank you again. God bless you and your loved ones,

~Father David Greenfield

~Deacon Jim Hoegemeier

P.S.- Deacon and I are checking to see who gained the most "Christmas Cookie Weight" over the holidays. Hahaha
