LOVE BEGINS HERE - A couple changes to note. . .

During the week of July 22nd-27th Love Begins Here will be at our Parish. During this time, 90 high schoolers and 30 adults will call All Saints Parish and the Berlin community their home. This summer we are one of 7 sites in the Madison Diocese that will help log over 17,000 hours of community service through Catholic youth. During the week, to accommodate the Love Begins Here program, there will be a couple adjustments to Mass and confession times. I hope by giving ample notice, our regular weekday Mass attendees will be able to adjust their schedule. Thank you for helping us minister to these young Catholics (and provide them the opportunity to minister to others). ~Fr. David

Tuesday, July 24th:Mass at 5:30 PM
Wednesday July 25th:Mass at 8:00 AM.
 NO PRIVATE CONFESSIONS from 4:30 - 6:30pm
Thursday July 26th:Candlelight Mass at 8:15 PM
Friday, July 27th:Mass at 8:00 AM

PARISH PRESS

Dear Friends,

I live in Panama, in the jungles of Panama to be more exact where most people never had enough money to even think about a bank account. Where people live in one-room huts with dirt floors and thatched roofs. Where mothers and fathers can't afford $5.00 to buy worm medicine for their kids because they don't have $5.00. It is a jungle where snake bites kill in ten minutes. Where the common means of transportation is either walking or horse-back.

It is a jungle where thousands of people eke out a subsistent living on the very barest necessities of life. There is no doctor for hours and hours away - no electricity, and in most places, no running water.

You have heard of these places before, and this is where I live. This is where people are asking me, "Can you please help us grow food? Can you please help us with the drinking water contamination problems? Will you teach us how to build a decent house? Will you please help us buy worm medicine?" And I say to them, "Yes, but only if others can help me do it."

Yes, I know I can help because I know you care and can help too. You can help me help them. In the name of those who hunger, I thank you. ~Fr. Walter Kasuboski Tax deductible checks may be made out to Cash - St. Francis Natural Park Foundation before July 31 and dropped in the collection or dropped off at the parish office.

ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Mr. Zangl has announced his resignation as principal of ASCS, effective at the end of July, 2018. After thought and deliberation, he feels called back to the classroom and the direct teaching of children. While transitions such as this present challenges, they also present new opportunities. Be assured we are working with the diocese regarding potential candidates for the key role of school principal. Recruitment and interviewing will take place as soon as things can be arranged and put in motion. Also, the school redesign and focus on the middle school classes will continue to its completion. Immediate questions or clarifications regarding Mr. Zangl's resignation may be directed to Mr. Jason Kreuscher, Chairman of the Education Commission, email: jasonkreuscher@charter.net.

Along with All Saints Parish, I thank Mr. Zangl for the years he's worked in our Catholic School, and for the contributions he has made. I would ask that our prayers accompany him as he focuses on a new avenue in his life.

In the interim, I have asked Jana Dahms to fill in as acting principal. We appreciate her willingness to help out! During this time of transition, I sincerely ask everyone to assist Jana - along with Ruth (school office) and all our great teaching staff. We are proud to educate and train God's children and will continue to do so.

~Father David Greenfield

FESTIVAL OF ALL SAINTS PARISH - $$ REPORT

The profit for our 2018 Parish Festival is an impressive $26,444.15

Thanks to all who worked so hard to contribute to the success of this parish event. A very, very special thank you to our chairpersons, Scott Bartol and Andy Seaman. Our parish is blessed with their time, talents and endless supply of energy! How do they do it? Please be sure to thank them in person if you get the chance.

NEXT YEAR'S FESTIVAL

The planning and organization starts right away. Can you help? Do you have time and talent that you could share to ensure the continued success of the parish festival? This is an important parish event because it is our biggest fundraiser. But more importantly, it brings us together as a parish and community. Consider what you could do at the festival. People are needed for various jobs – from researching new ideas, organizing, advertising, calling volunteers, working at the dinner, set-up crew, clean-up crew and the list goes on. We are especially looking for someone, or a team of people, who can chair the chicken dinner. Call the parish office if you would like to put your name in the mix to help. We can guarantee you will have fun, laugh with old friends, make new friends and work hard.

WINNEBAGOLAND BARBERSHOP CHORUS - will once again be performing at area churches on Sunday, August 5. They will sing prior to 7:30 Mass at All Saints and at the end of 10:00 Mass. Come early for the 7:30 AM Mass so as not to interrupt them. Thank you gentlemen for sharing your time and talent with us.
