Parish Council will meet Tuesday, June 16 at 6:30PM in the parish hall. Please note the different location; the bigger space will allow us to meet while adhering to social distancing recommendations.

Education Commission will meet on Wednesday, June 17 at 6:15 PM at the school.

The All Saints Parish Rummage Sale scheduled for July 10-12, 2020 and sponsored by the CCW, has unfortunately had to be canceled. This was a tough decision for the ladies in charge, but as the time gets closer, the covid numbers in Wisconsin are still rising. Our plan is to have the sale next year, probably in July, so if you are able to hold your treasures until then, we would be most grateful. These are very trying and difficult times for all of us. Please support us as we strive to keep everyone safe and pray that God, in His infinite love and goodness, will return our country to some sort of normalcy in the near future that we can accept and include some of our social, family, and parish activities. In God We Trust, Joanne Simon & Sarah Schimke

Dear Ladies of All Saints CCW After much prayer and discernment, the National Council of Catholic Women, has made an informed decision to postpone our Centennial Convention 2020 until August 25 - 28, 2021, when we are able to celebrate together safely. Our concern for your health and wellbeing as well as that of our partners was the primary reason for this decision. If you have already registered for the 2020 Convention, an NCCW staff member will be calling you in the next few weeks to discuss your refund. We are ever so grateful for your continued support and we look forward to celebrating together in 2021!!! May you continue to find good health and many blessings. In gratitude, Jean Kelly, President, National Council of Catholic Women

Parish Elections We have been discussing ways to have our parish elections for both Parish Council and Education Commission in the near future. Before we can do that however, we need a slate of candidates!

Any parish member who is over the age of 18 is eligible to run for the Parish Council and Education Commission. Each of these groups meet once a month, and people are elected for two-year terms. If you are interested in serving the parish and school in one of these ways, please contact the parish office to submit your name to be placed on the ballot.

Thank you to all of our lawn mowing volunteers. We now have a "lawn mowing brigade"! It's a task that takes a village, and we are grateful for your help and service to make this possible.

ASCS Parent meeting Thursday, June 25th 6:30pm

As things develop for next year we will do our best to keep you informed. All Saints Catholic School will be holding a Parent Meeting to discuss the possible protocols/recommendations we have been given to open for next school year. This will be the first of a couple of meetings that will be offered throughout the summer to keep everyone informed. You will have two ways to participate in the meeting, in person at the Parish hall or online via Zoom. Mrs. Dahms will be sending out a Zoom link prior to the meeting. The meeting will be held at 6:30pm on June 25th.

THANK YOU!!

As all schools went from in-person schooling to online schooling with very little time to prepare this spring, our amazing team at All Saints Catholic School handled it with determination, innovation, and above all, compassion for the students during this sudden and unexpected transition. Thank you to our wonderful principal, teachers and staff at All Saints Catholic School for all you do. This year has been quite a ride with unexpected twists and turns! God bless you all!

FAITH FORMATION

Please pray for our First Communicants who will be making their First Holy Communion at a private Mass on June 28. We praise our Lord for His goodness in giving us his own Body and Blood as life-giving food for our souls. May these children grow to love Him even more deeply as they prepare to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

A big thank you to Joann Guden and all the volunteers and bakers who have helped to make our Soul Food outreach a success! For those of you who don't know, Soul Food is a joint ministry run by several churches in our community. Soul Food takes place at Grace Lutheran Church every Thursday during the school year. It offers a meal and a Christian message for any high school students who want to walk over during their lunch hour. The cost is only $1 for each student, and the area churches involved take turns providing the meal and message.

VBS is NOT cancelled this summer!! We are excited to be able to have Vacation Bible School for our youngsters again this year. Mark your calendars for July 27 - 30 and watch the bulletin and our social media pages for more details to follow!

A Moment With the Bishop:

Bishop Donald Hying puts out a brief (approximately 2 minutes) message each day on his YouTube Channel. So far topics have included reflections on daily scripture, lives of saints, and the Holy Eucharist. You can find his channel at: www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL2bjxQbqE8m2Bavdf5PiB7sAy5q6jph-y

Please take a couple minutes out of your day to listen to a prayerful message from our holy bishop.

June 15 is World Elder Abuse Day

Elder abuse encompasses a range of behaviors, but one of the biggest areas of abuse takes place in the form of financial exploitation. Sadly, many of these abusers are family or close friends of the victim. This statistic makes sense when we consider that elderly individuals commonly rely on trusted family members and friends to handle some of their day-to-day responsibilities such as paying bills and shopping. No one likes to think that someone they trust will take advantage of them, but unfortunately, this situation occurs far too often. It is OK to have someone help you with your financial obligations, and it can be done in ways that limit the risk of financial exploitation.

Joint bank accounts are a quick and easy way to give someone access to your money to manage your expenses. However, adding someone to a joint bank account also makes them a joint owner of all the money in that account. Joint bank accounts also hold a "right of survivorship" meaning when one account owner dies, the remaining account holder is entitled to the balance of the account, regardless of any will or other estate planning.

Instead of a joint account, consider alternative arrangements with your bank that would give someone access to your accounts without making them a joint owner. Instead of opening a joint account, designate a trusted individual as an authorized agent. This can often be achieved just as quickly as opening a new account by filling out a form supplied by your bank. Designating someone as an authorized agent gives them the access that they need to account funds, but also places on them a fiduciary duty to act within the best interest of the person they are assisting. If the agent violates that duty and takes advantage of the individual, they can be held liable.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

This information is from Lauren Hamvas, an attorney with Elder Rights Project at Legal Action of Wisconsin, which provides free civil legal assistance to victims of elder abuse. For assistance, you can call 1-844-614-5468.

News and Announcements

Resumption of Public Masses - What to expect:

The following excerpt from Bishop Hying explains his rationale and approach for return to public Mass:

“Given the lifting of civil restrictions in most counties of our diocese, some may ask why we are adopting a gradual approach to reinstating Masses with significant restrictions present. The answer lies in the fact that COVID-19 cases continue to emerge in the state and there is still a very real danger of infection without adequate care; therefore, we want to be prudential in light of public health concerns. To simply emerge from these weeks of physical distancing without any gradualism would be irresponsible. Our hope is that our elderly and at-risk faithful people will exercise prudence in attending Mass - especially given the current dispensation from the Sunday obligation. But we do want to begin enabling people to participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice, the central experience of Catholicism, which we have all sorely missed in these challenging weeks of the pandemic.”

Weekend Mass

- The recommendation that has been given all along still applies: If you do not feel well, think you may have been exposed to the virus, have an immune system that is already compromised, or still feel uncomfortable being with large groups, stay home. The dispensation given by the Holy Father and the Bishop is still in place and permits one to be absent from Mass for a justifiable reason. We will also be livestreaming the 10:00 Mass on Sunday for those who wish to stay home.
- We are required to limit capacity to 25% of the church occupancy limit, which equates to 162 parishioners.
- We will be adhering to social distancing guidelines of 6 ft. Parishioners are free to wear masks if they wish, but must provide their own.
- Enter the church through the carport doors. This is necessary to keep a count of people as they enter.
- As difficult as this is, please be understanding if the capacity has been reached prior to your arrival and you are asked to attend the next Mass. Remember the dispensation from Pope Francis for truly not being able to attend remains in place.
- There will be a hand sanitizing station located at the entrance. Please sanitize as you enter. We also encourage you to bring your own pocket sized hand sanitizer if you have one available.
- Please follow the signs and usher's instructions as you enter church. Seating must take place immediately - there can be no congregating or clustering in the gathering space before or after Mass.
- Enter the worship space through the doors that are propped open.
- Seating will be in every other pew. Pews will be marked with tape with 6ft. social distancing in mind. Obviously, families and couples of the same household may sit together with no spacing. Outside of that, 6ft. spacing should be maintained.
- Touchable things such as missalettes, chairs, pamphlets, etc, have been removed.
- If you need to leave the worship space during Mass, please exit through the doors that have remained propped open.
- The one single use bathroom will be open for use by both genders. There will be disinfectant wipes and basic instructions in the bathroom.
- There will be no singing by the congregation. All singing will be done by the cantor.

Holy Communion

- Father, Deacon, and the Eucharistic Minister will be distributing communion. They will be required to wear face masks.
- They will come to you, please remain in your pew.
- It is strongly recommended that you receive communion in the hand.

Departing after Mass

- When Mass is over, an usher will dismiss the assembly pew by pew, starting in the back.
- Please follow the signs to exit the worship space and the gathering space through the front (south side) doors. If you are using a wheelchair or walker, you may exit out the car port side doors.
- Please note you will not be able to congregate in the gathering space after Mass. We ask that you keep the line moving as you leave. Feel free to talk in the parking lot after Mass is over.
- If you would like to receive a printed bulletin, ushers will be handing them out as you exit your pew.

Weekday Mass - Please follow the guidelines for weekend Masses, following the social distancing guidelines of 6 ft.
