PARISH PRESS

Looking Ahead.... To Christmas!

As we prepare for the Advent/Christmas Season, we need your help in gathering information regarding who will be attending Mass at All Saints Catholic Church for the celebration of The Nativity of our Lord on December 24th & December 25th.

We hope the COVID situation is much better by then, but we have no way of knowing that, so are approaching this as if we would still have a maximum capacity of 200 in the worship space. With that in mind, we are trying to determine whether adding an additional Mass will be necessary, and if so, what time would best accommodate people. We plan to have our usual Mass times as follows:

Thursday, December 24th ~ 4:30 PM Children's Mass and 7:30 PM Mass

Friday, December 25 ~ 10:00 AM Christmas Morning Mass

Please fill out the following poll information to help determine if adding an additional Mass time would be helpful and the time that would be most beneficial. (We are considering adding either a 9:30 PM Mass on Christmas Eve or a midnight Mass on Christmas Eve.) Please fill in each part of the poll completely. We appreciate you taking the time to help us plan ahead for the important Christmas celebration. <https://forms.gle/SjKANDB2nzzK1zZC8>

Please note: Once we determine the Mass schedule for Christmas Eve and Christmas, and as we draw closer to that time, it will be necessary to register online or sign up in person for the Mass you plan to attend, and let us know how many out of town guests will accompany you. We understand some of that may be difficult to determine exactly, but we have to give our best prediction. We will keep you all informed as to how and when people are able to sign up.

Lifting of the Dispensation of Sunday Mass

As we've heard through the media, the general dispensation from Mass attendance will end Sunday, September 27. This reinstatement of the Mass should not be seen as a draconian demand that everyone, regardless of their age, health, or physical condition, must return to Mass. For example, elderly who have concerns, people whose immune systems are already compromised, those who work with patients in hospitals or in rest homes are examples of people who, in good conscience, may still be dispensed from the obligation of Sunday Mass.

Conversely, the younger and healthy among us who refrained from attending, should consider the safety measures that are in place, and do a sincere examination of conscience about returning to Mass. Those (regardless of their age) who have a sincere fear of mixing in any public setting, must also do an examination of conscience, making their decision between themselves and God. It is He, not I who is the judge. (When taking a broad approach, there are always exceptions) but a general criterion might be, that if one feels safe to enter stores, restaurants, bars, mingle at public events, and send their children back to school, then one must seriously consider attending Mass where considerable precautions are taken to ensure sanitary and safe conditions. If someone has examined their conscience, yet really struggles with their situation /decision, know that you may come and speak with me.

During this time of pandemic, parishioners have watched Mass "online" and that was a blessing to many. When we can't attend in person, watching Mass in this manner is a good and pious practice, but the virtual is never a substitute for the actual. That's because our God is not a virtual God, but very real! The theological dimension of Mass means that God is present in a relationship of Persons in the Most Holy Trinity, and desires that same relationship with us. He longs for it. In fact, He died for it!

Paraphrasing what our Bishop said, [This is reinstating the "normalcy of Mass", and recognizing that Mass is essential for me, and if I have no compelling reason not to go, then I need to be at Sunday Mass where, through the Holy Eucharist and the Word, I can receive the graces to face another week.] And who doesn't need that?!

Those who have not been able to be here for many weeks may not be familiar with the safety measures put in place. I think it's important to know the following:

- Beginning of Mass: There is no procession. Father and Deacon enter from the side sacristy.
 - ♦ One-way enter and one-way exit (parishioners come in one designated set of doors and exit through another)
 - ♦ Hand sanitizer stations are located at the beginning of the "entrance pathway" and in the bathroom.
 - ♦ Sanitized pews: All pews are sanitized by dedicated volunteers after each Mass.
 - ♦ Face Masks: Masks are required to the extent and manner in which the laws of both the Church and State require them. (i.e. Masks may be required, but we are directed to recognize that due to health conditions, not all are able to wear masks.)
- During Mass:
 - ♦ Masks are to be worn by the faithful for the duration of Mass.
 - ♦ Parishioners do not come forward for Holy Communion; all remain stationary in their pews as Holy Communion is brought to them.
 - ♦ Priests, deacons, and Eucharistic ministers are required to sanitize hands and wear masks during the distribution of Holy Communion.
 - ♦ Gathering of monetary gifts is done by ushers wearing masks and gloves, using the "old fashioned" long-handled baskets (who thought they'd ever come back) ☺
 - ♦ Currently, and until further notice, there is no singing by the assembly, only by the designated cantor.

- ◆ To minimize touch, there is no book bearer, and altar server duties are minimized.
- ◆ To minimize touch, all missalettes have been removed.
- ◆ To minimize touch, the kiosk – along with books, pamphlets, cards, etc., have been temporarily removed from the gathering space.
- ◆ Father and deacon depart to the side, the same way they entered.
- ◆ Congregation is asked to depart by keeping social distancing - all exiting promptly in one direction. Unfortunately, no lingering or visiting is allowed in the gathering space. Once you are outdoors where there is open space you are free to do so.

Sometimes these may be difficult to abide by. I understand. Sometimes I find them difficult to enforce. I know too, everything might not be perfect. We are following Church and State directives as best we can, while remaining a place of worship and a house of prayer. A place you can call home. May it please God.

~Father David Greenfield

All Saints Catholic School

Building Saints, Scholars, and Children of God

What's Happening at our Catholic School

As we move further into the school year at All Saints Catholic School, one thing we miss with the ongoing pandemic is being able to take field trips! This week middle school students were able to partake in a virtual field trip to the Horicon Marsh!

The students were given the opportunity to explore without leaving the classroom in a live virtual program offered by Dr. Liz Herzmann, Wildlife Conservation Educator of Wildlife Management at the Horicon Marsh Education & Visitor Center. Dr. Herzmann offers the programs as a way to keep students connected and engaged outside the classrooms.

During the virtual field trip, students learned through a program titled Monarch Tagging, Migration and Fall Marsh Exploration. Dr. Herzmann shared how monarch butterflies are tagged and tracked and helped the children learn about the cycles of the monarch butterfly.

"It was kind of nice that we could go on this field trip, learning about the marsh and learning about butterflies even though we could not go in person," said Aubrey, ASCS student.

The students were intrigued to learn about monarch butterflies and migration, as well as how long it takes and where the butterflies are flying to. "It was neat to learn that the butterflies go to Mexico and that it takes them two months to get there," said Elli, ASCS student.

The students and staff enjoyed the Horicon Marsh virtual presentation and as teacher Jill Jensen shared, along with the students, they are looking forward to when the COVID-19 pandemic passes and they can take a real field trip to the marsh.

The pandemic has created challenges and dilemmas for all of us, yet like so many people have had to, the students and staff of All Saints Catholic School continue to find ways to persevere and find collaborative ways to explore and learn even when we can't take regular field trips!

It's Not Too Late! All Saints Catholic School enrollment is open for 2020-2021!

ASCS is holding in-person, classroom instruction 5 days a week this year.

Please register your student(s) at our website: school.allsaintsberlin.org or call the school office for assistance.

Compassionate, gratuitous services available for divorced Catholics and those in irregular marriage situations

In an effort to improve our diocesan ministry to divorced Catholics and those in irregular marriage situations, our diocesan tribunal has expanded its services to include a Pre-Petition Case Advisor. A Pre-Petition Case Advisor accompanies an individual through the discernment process following a divorce by explaining the Church's teaching on marriage, making a personal assessment of any moral and canonical remedies available, and providing assistance in petitioning for a declaration of nullity (commonly referred to as an annulment).

Amy Klarkowski, previously the Moderator of the Tribunal Chancery for the Diocese of Madison from 2014-2019, has stepped into this role of Pre-Petition Case Advisor. If you or anyone you know has questions about marriage nullity or how to petition for a declaration of nullity, contact Ms. Klarkowski directly at (608) 821-3068 or send an email to amy.klarkowski@madisondiocese.org. The information you provide will be kept confidential and services are always at no cost to you.
