Pope Francis announces 2021 the "Year of St. Joseph"

Pope Francis announced in a decree, that this will be a Year of St. Joseph. His announcement was made on December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. This coincides with the 150th anniversary of the saint's proclamation as patron of the Universal Church. The year of St. Joseph begins December 8, 2020, and concludes on December 8, 2021. Along with this decree, the Pope also issued an Apostolic Letter, entitled Patris Corde (With a Father's Heart), in which he shares some of his personal reflections on St. Joseph. Pope Francis says in his letter, "Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation. A word of recognition and of gratitude is due to them all."

After almost a year of worldwide pandemic, where our essential workers and volunteers have been the unsung heroes, St. Joseph is a very relevant saint for our times. The entirety of the letter can be read here:

http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_letters/documents/papa-francesco-lettera-ap_20201208_patris-corde.html

In addition to the decree and letter, the Holy Father also set forth guidelines for the faithful to receive a plenary indulgence during this year of St. Joseph. A plenary indulgence is the remittance of all temporal punishment due to past sins that have already been forgiven. An indulgence can be gained for oneself, or for a soul in purgatory, but not for another living person. His Holiness, Pope Francis has set forth 15 different ways (prayers or good works) that the faithful can obtain a plenary indulgence during this year. Each one must be accompanied by the usual requirements of Sacramental Confession, receiving the Holy Eucharist, and praying for the Holy Father's intentions as soon as reasonably possible, along with a total detachment from sin.

For a complete list of the different ways to gain this indulgence, please follow this link:

THIS WEEK AT ALL SAINTS PARISH

January 4 - 10, 2021

Monday:	Parish office closed
Wednesday:	3:30 & 6:00 PM - Religious Education 4:30 - 6:30 PM - Private Confessions
Thursday:	2:30 - 6:30 PM - Eucharistic Adoration
Saturday:	4:30 PM Mass
Sunday:	7:30 AM & 10:00 AM Mass 6:30 PM Bingo - parish hall

Eucharistic Adoration in January will be on Thursday, January 7. Due to the holiday and Holy Day falling on the first Friday this month, Adoration will be moved to the following Thursday - January 7th from 2:30 - 6:30 PM. Also please note that Adoration will be livestreamed from now on, so if you're not able to be here in person, you can still be here spiritually while spending some quiet time of prayer and meditation at home. You can view the livestream on our Facebook page, the same way you view the Holy Mass.

Donations for Christmas Flowers - You can still make a donation to help defray the cost of bringing the beauty of the season into our worship space. You can place your donation in the weekend collection, drop it in the mail slot, or mail it to PO Box 269. Thank you!

Christmas Book Gift Bags - The book included this year is, I Heard God Laugh by Matthew Kelly. If you did not get a gift bag, or weren't here in person for Mass on Christmas or Christmas Eve, there are still gift bags available in the office. You can stop by the office, or call to make other arrangements if you would like to have one.

Hurting From Abortion? Help is Available - Are you or a loved one carrying the sorrow and regret from abortion? Receive the gift of healing and hope in this new year. Whether recent or long ago...God is waiting...Healing is possible. Project Rachel has trained counselors and priests available; call 608-221-9593 or email Mary Mead at meadmt@sbcglobal.net for confidential help.

Sunday Missals for the new liturgical year - We have had a few people ask about missalettes for the new year so they can follow along when participating in the Holy Mass at home.

We have decided not to purchase a large quantity of the Breaking Bread missalettes at this time, without knowing if/when we would be able to have them in the pews again. Purchasing a small quantity without the bulk pricing is cost prohibitive. (about $18 each) So we did not purchase any extra Breaking Bread books for people to have/purchase from us. You can purchase your own copy of Breaking Bread if you'd like; the website is ocp.org.

Another option would be a less expensive missalette, which you can order from Amazon for about $2. It is called the New St. Joseph Sunday Missal, and has all the Sunday readings for the liturgical year, as well as the other Mass parts and prayers that Father says. Here is the link to Amazon for this book. <https://www.amazon.com/Joseph-Sunday-Missal-Hymnal-American/dp/1947070711>

Knights of Columbus Charity Benefit Raffle Tickets now available. Tickets are: 1 for $5; 3 for $10; 9 for $20. All proceeds go to charitable causes including our own church and school. Lots of great prizes including cash prizes. Contact Tom Pionke at 920-290-0984 or Jim Cariveau for more information or to get your tickets.

Just for Fun 😊

Good News! We've heard that the man who fell into the upholstery machine is now fully recovered.

What's Happening at All Saints Catholic School

This year, like so many things, All Saints Catholic School was unable to host an in-person Christmas Concert due to the pandemic. In an effort to still bring the students together and hold a program, students in individual classes continued to work on their parts of Once Upon a Starry Night. Last week, during specific times, students were all recorded doing their parts, to bring together a video production of our school Christmas program. The link has been shared with all of our families and is on the All Saints Catholic Parish and School Website, or you can use this link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_d8wnjvK9p0&feature=youtu.be

We continue to look forward to the days when we can be together again to share in the moments like the annual Christmas program but our students have learned the importance of being resilient and moving forward during these challenging times. This Christmas season we have continued to keep students engaged and excited, while learning about the coming of Christ, a joyous time of year.

Despite not having the program in person, it is always a wonderful opportunity to share the gift of religious education with our students, just as we did through this year's Christmas play. We hope you are able to access the link and enjoy watching it as much as the All Saints Catholic School students enjoyed presenting it!

FAITH FORMATION

After a two week Christmas Vacation, our Religious Education Classes will resume again at our regular times on Wednesday, January 6. K-5th grade meets from 3:30 - 5:00 PM and our 6 - 7th grade meets from 6:00 - 7:30 PM.

The next Confirmation Class for our 8th and 9th graders will be Sunday, January 17 from 8:15 AM - noon.

Food for Thought:

A visiting priest was attending a men's breakfast in an Ohio farm county. He asked one of the older farmers in attendance to say grace that morning. After all were seated, with heads bowed and hats in their laps, the senior farmer began:

“Lord, I hate buttermilk.” The priest opened one eye and wondered where this was going. Then the farmer loudly proclaimed, “Lord, I hate lard, too!” Now the priest was really worried. However, without missing a beat the farmer continued, “And Lord, you know how I don't care for raw white flour, either.”

At this point, the priest was ready to stand up and intervene, but the farmer went on with his prayer,

“But Lord, when you mix 'em all together and bake 'em up, I do love fresh biscuits. So Lord, when things come up we don't like, when life gets hard, when we just don't understand what you are tryin' to say to us, we just need to relax and wait 'til you're done mixin' and likely it will be something far better than biscuits.”

Amen.

Remembering the Parish in your Will

An important way for members of one generation to have a lasting impact on the parish and its institutions is to make a lump sum bequest, or estate percentage bequest, in one's Will.

Sacraments

At All Saints Parish, Baptisms are usually celebrated on Sundays after the 10 am Mass.

All parents who wish to have a child baptized are asked to call the Parish Office 920-361-5252 to speak with Father David about scheduling the Baptism.

Baptism for adults is part of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA program)
