WEEKLY BULLETIN

Silva Linings with Father John

Our readings today challenge us to reflect on how we are living as disciples of Christ. They offer us examples of how we should be living, and they present us with an opportunity to make a radical change in our lives.

In our first reading, Joshua tells the leaders of the Israelites to decide as to who they shall serve in this life, "If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you shall serve." At this time, the Israelites were not wholeheartedly committed to the Lord. But Joshua outspokenly addresses this situation and challenges them to make a decision.

As he presents them with this opportunity, he boldly states, "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Who or what does your household serve? Whether you are a household of one or 12, now is the time to decide, 'will we serve the Lord?'

We are constantly bombarded with endless distractions around us. It can be very easy to serve other 'gods' in our lives. For instance, putting technology (phone, internet, TV), our kids' extracurricular activities, our jobs, or our social lives before the Lord. We also might be putting these things above our loved ones, and if we are doing that, then we are putting them above our relationship with God.

Reflect on how you may not be putting God first in your life and decide to respond like the Israelites, "Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods...Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God."

Our second reading specifically challenges our families to live out their vocation of marriage to the fullest. St. Paul's message is uplifting and filled with profound beauty, truth, and goodness.

St. Paul was relating marriage to Christ's love for His Church. He is calling all husbands to radically love and serve their family as Christ radically loves us — by laying down His life for us. And he is calling all wives to support and uplift their husbands in this mission. Families are called to be a unified team in total service to one another out of love for Christ.

This capacity to love is within us, yet to love our families as Christ loves, we must first wholeheartedly love Him. As families, we must decide to put Christ first in our hearts so that we can better love one another. This is a daily choice we must make, and the best way to stay committed to this choice begins in daily prayer. It will transform our hearts.

Lastly, our Gospel brings us to the reality that making these radical changes in our lives will not be easy. Just as in Jesus' time, people listened to His words, and chose to turn away from Him, "as a result, many disciples turned to their former way of life." Sin is enticing but deathly.

Becoming a follower of Christ is life-giving and freeing. Peter reminds us to stay faithful and committed to Christ, "You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

With this in mind, we must strive each day to live intentionally as disciples of Christ. It starts with commitment — incorporating personal daily prayer and increasing that prayer week by week, incorporating prayer into our marriages and families, frequenting the sacraments, and serving others. Through this time with the Lord and service to those around us, He will reveal where to go next.

Today, let us pray for the strength to live our lives as Joshua proclaimed, "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND FAITH FORMATION

A message from Mrs. Dahms, All Saints Catholic School Principal:

All Saints Catholic School will welcome back 150 students this fall in 3K-8th grade! We are excited to see our enrollment increasing each year. We are thrilled to welcome back our amazing, dedicated, faith filled staff, our families, and our volunteers.

Our Catholic School plays a critical role in passing on the faith and forming further generations that will keep our parish a vibrant community of faith, worship and service. The flyer in your bulletin last week gave 10 reasons why our Catholic School makes a difference in our community. I would like to highlight a few of them:

- Strong Catholic traditions, such as infusing prayer in our classrooms and our daily life. Students at All Saints, pray every morning and afternoon to begin and end our day, we pray before and after meals and snacks, and we instill in our students the importance of having their own prayer life.

- ASCS prepares students to be productive, ethical citizens of our country, providing classes based on Catholic tenets in morality, faith and virtues.

- Academic excellence, we strive to provide a quality education in a safe, quiet environment to allow all students to succeed. Our students graduate from high school in the top 15% of their class. This year Hannah Mertens, an alumni of ASCS, was the Berlin High School valedictorian.

- Finally, we value our close partnership with our parents to support and enhance faith formation, not only at school but in their homes as well.

I would like to thank you for your continued support of ASCS. Through your donations and giving, we can continue to provide Catholic Education in our community. To those of you who answered my prayers- my message in the bulletin to help families in need, I thank you. The Little Saints funds will help families who need extra financial support to give their students the opportunity of a Catholic Education.

As we prepare for the new school year, All Saints Catholic School wants everyone to know that it's NOT too late to consider Catholic education for your children! No need to worry about open enrollment. Offering enriching 3K programs all the way through 8th grade, ASCS welcomes all students and families to explore the opportunities. All Saints Catholic School is filled with strong academics, athletics, religious education, arts and music, individualized instruction, morals, values, community service and so much more! If you are considering it for your children, or have grandchildren, or know of other families in the area with young children, consider sharing the idea of All Saints Catholic School. We really are more than just a school, we are family! Call us today at 920-361-1781 to learn more about enrolling your student today - the 2021-2022 school year is approaching fast!!

Registration for Religious Education and Confirmation Programs for All Saints and Our Lady of the Lake is now open!
