WEEKLY BULLETIN

Silva Linings
with Father John

Our readings this week encourage us to not only be good stewards of all that God has given us but also to rejoice in the good stewardship of others.

In our First Reading, a young man approaches Moses to inform him that Eldad and Medad were prophesying in the camp. Joshua, who is Moses' aide, encourages Moses to stop these men. Moses responds, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets! Would that the Lord might bestow his spirit on them all!" Essentially, Moses is telling his men to stop being jealous that others too have the gift of prophecy bestowed on them from the Lord.

A similar situation occurred in our Gospel as John told Jesus about someone driving out demons in His name. John explains that he tried to prevent him since this man doesn't follow them. Jesus responds by saying, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us."

Eldad, Medad, and the man driving out demons were all doing the work of God. They had been entrusted with a gift and used it to glorify the Lord. Joshua and John should have responded in joy and appreciation for another's gifts and talents. If we apply this scenario to our modern-day lives, we might find it extremely relatable. We oftentimes look at another's strengths as our weakness whether it be in parish life, in the workforce, or even in our own families. We are left with a bitter heart and a negative attitude when we become jealous of another. And when we view others in this light, we not only diminish their good works but also overlook the gifts God has given to them and us.

Jesus is calling us to cut out those sinful thoughts and attitudes from our lives. The next time we witness someone being a good steward of God's gifts — rejoice! And continue to examine how you are using your gifts and talents to ensure you are being a good steward of what God has entrusted to you.

We do not want to end up like the rich in our Second Reading from St. James. "Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries... You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter." The rich in this reading stored up their riches to the point where they withheld wages from their workers! They clenched tightly to the pleasures and luxuries that the world offers and put it in front of both God and their neighbor. They misused the gifts God bestowed on them.

We must keep this in perspective as we journey on our path as Christian stewards. We do not live for this life, but for the next. We cannot take our fancy pair of shoes, newly renovated house, or our bank accounts to heaven, but we do take our refined hearts.

How do we prepare ourselves for eternal life? It simply starts with being a good steward of what God has given us. It is not bad to have those things; however, we cannot let them rule our hearts. Rather, we are called to share what God has entrusted to us. He has given us time every day, countless talents, and numerous treasures. Are we using them for His glory?

This week when we witness other people in our lives using the gifts God has given to them, instead of becoming jealous or critical, say a prayer of thanksgiving and take time to reflect on what God has gifted you and how you can offer it to Him for His glory.

ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND FAITH FORMATION

It is time to prioritize your marriage because

Your Marriage Matters!

Beginning in October, you can find resources to create a date night in your own home that will help you reconnect to your beloved and to the Lord. Each month will have a theme and will include how to pray together, an activity to help you reconnect or stay connected and coordinating meal and drink suggestions.

To access the free materials please visit madisondiocese.org/date-night or text Diocese to 84576 and select "Date Night" under Marriage & Family to receive them via email.

On Tuesday, September 21 the Lions Club of Berlin was at All Saints Catholic School to host a vision screening! The Lions Club members used a handheld vision screening device that can detect vision issues in children as young as six months old. The Lions scanned all of the student's eyes and are able to send home a report if there are concerns, which can alert parents to schedule an eye doctor appointment for further screening by an optometrist. All Saints Catholic School really appreciated the Berlin Lions Club offering this service and thanked them for assisting us with this important aspect as vision plays a vital role in our children's education.

Prayer Pals

At All Saints Catholic School, we have been discussing our relationship with God. As part of that relationship, we know that God wants us to think about others, and pray for others. We would like to let you know about a prayer program that we have here at All Saints Catholic School. Students and Families can let us know if someone is in special need of our prayers. We then send the person a colored picture with a prayer on it, and let them know that we are thinking and praying for them.

If you know of anyone in special need of prayers, (does not have to be a parishioner.) Just fill out the following form and we will send a nice note out right away. Anything you can tell us would be most helpful.

Please send this form back even if you sent one last year. We would like to update the prayer binder, so we will need a new form for anyone you would like us to send a prayer picture to. You can email dtrochinski@allsaintsberlin.org or call the school office 920-361-1781 with the following information.
