with Father John

In the modern world, it is easy to view each other with suspicion or at least a certain guardedness. We are told at the airport to watch out for our luggage and report any suspicious activity. We install security systems on our homes and alarms on our cars. We scroll through our phones in waiting rooms rather than make eye contact and small talk with the people sitting near us.

Of course, it's wise to be prudent in our dealings with people. But stewardship living calls us to a different outlook towards others. It calls us to approach everyone with an open heart — not through a lens of suspicion but quite the opposite, through the lens of loving hospitality.

This is the attitude of our heavenly Father when He looks upon creation, as we see in our first reading from the Book of Wisdom. “For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made for you would not fashion what you hate... But you spare all things, because they are yours, O Ruler and Lover of souls, for your imperishable spirit is in all things!” What a loving and kind Father we have who sees the goodness in all His creation and all His children. God’s “imperishable spirit” is in every person because every person is made in God’s own image and likeness.

Far deeper than good manners or a superficial exchange of pleasantries, the virtue of hospitality is the outward expression of this way of seeing people as God sees them. If we are willing to practice radical Christian hospitality in our daily lives, our families, our workplace, and our parish community can be transformed.

Jesus models this transforming hospitality in His encounter with Zacchaeus, the tax collector, in today’s Gospel reading from Luke. The passage begins, “At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town.” Our Lord had plans that day and a mission to fulfill. He did not intend to stop in Jericho. But Zacchaeus was in Jericho and Zacchaeus needed Jesus. So, our Lord, who is the epitome of hospitality, graciously set aside His plans for the sake of the tax collector.

Not content with just exchanging a friendly hello with Zaccheus, Jesus seeks him out of the crowd and insists on having dinner in his home. “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.” This was a gesture of intimacy and true fellowship in that day and culture. The gesture was scoffed at by the crowd who viewed the tax collector with suspicion.

But Jesus saw the goodness within the man. Our Lord’s open and welcoming attitude (His hospitality) called forth that goodness and Zaccheus was transformed instantly. “Behold half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.”

Let us Christian stewards resolve to practice radical hospitality towards everyone we encounter this week. Let us pray that God will open our minds and soften our hearts to those around us so that we are ready to set aside our own plans for their sake, find the goodness within them, and call it forth as Jesus does for each one of us.

Eucharistic Adoration

All Saints Church has Adoration every Wednesday from 8:30am—3:30pm.
We invite anyone who has time to stop in for a visit with our Eucharistic Lord.

There is a new schedule for the next three months, going until November 23. Time slots will now be in half-hour increments. Sign up in the gathering area at All Saints or see Sr. Michaelleen or call the office. Even if you are not signed up, you are welcome to come any time, for any amount of time, whether it’s an hour or only a few minutes.

Tuesday, November 1st is All Saints Day.

This is a holy day of obligation, meaning that all Catholics are required attend Mass as if it is a Sunday. All Masses on Oct. 31 & Nov. 1 in the schedule above will fulfill this obligation. All Saints' Day is a solemnity on which the Church honors all the saints, known and unknown, who have gained the reward of heaven. Let us think of this day as an opportunity, rather than an obligation, to take a break from the troubles of this world and to focus on the things of heaven.

Thank You to everyone who helped "Load the Trailer" for the Berlin Food Pantry. A total of 1,100 lbs. of food was collected from All Saints Church and School and delivered to the food pantry. A special thank you goes out to Lawrence Nigbor for the use of his trailer, Nancy Trochinski for her work organizing, and all our wonderful students at All Saints Catholic School for their help.

(In case you missed this food drive, you can bring non-perishable food items and paper products to All Saints Church anytime and place them in the new wooden boxes just inside the west carport entrance.)

All Saints Harvest Dinner Thank You!

The 2022 Harvest Dinner and Basket Raffle was a huge success!!! All our volunteers go above and beyond what is needed to make this event so successful! We are so blessed. The dinner was delicious thanks to our wonderful cooks, as well as all the volunteers that helped that day. 400 dinners were served and the homemade pies and desserts were fantastic! The basket raffle was very successful with 20 beautiful baskets. Thank you to all that donated baskets and helped. There are too many people to list everyone that helped make this event a success, but know that we are really grateful for your help. This event could not have been such a success without everyone's help.

Wedding Banns II: Jacob Diny & Lindsey Vela

Flavors of Fall Soup Luncheon & Bake Sale Saturday, November 5th at All Saints

Crafts and baked goods will be sold from 9am - 1pm and a soup lunch will be served from 10:30 - 1:00. Price is $8 for adults, $4 for kids age 6-12, 5 & under eat free!

Attention gardeners and canners: This year we are including a "home grown" section of homemade items such as canned vegetables and fruits, jelly, popcorn, honey, syrup, candles, soaps, etc. Crafts and donations can be dropped off at the church office during office hours, or bring them the day of the event, starting at 8AM. Contact: Sharlene Parsons 920-203-8662.

Your Box of Joy may be the only Christmas gift a poor child in a developing country receives! This year we're hoping to provide hope, joy and gifts to 200 children.

- Boxes will be available on tables in the Gathering Space after weekend Masses from now until Nov. 12. A notebook is available for you to write your name, phone, the date, and number of boxes taken. (OR you may use any 12x5" box) A list of suggested gifts is included in each Box of Joy.
- Include a $9 donation (made payable to All Saints CCW) in an envelope, place it inside the box, and close the box with a rubber band. This will cover the cost of shipping and help support the mission. Boxes may be returned to the table in the Gathering Space any time, but they must be returned before November 27. Be sure to check your name, date and number of boxes you are returning. Please pray for each child who will receive a box, that they will receive the box God meant for them to have.

All Saints CCW is coordinating this program. For ideas or questions, call Sharlene Parsons, Debra Downen 920-290-2903 or Ann Budde 920-290-3217. THANK YOU!

On All Souls Day, November 2, we commemorate all our faithful departed in a special way. There will be a candle-light blessing at each of our Catholic cemeteries in Berlin on Wednesday, Nov. 2: We will begin at St. Stanislaus Cemetery at 6:00pm and move on to St. Michael Cemetery at 6:30 pm. All are welcome to come to either or both cemeteries to take part in this blessing.

ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND FAITH FORMATION

Students learn the importance of working together and helping each other at All Saints Catholic School. Here, the 4th grade students are helping their 3K friends make finger rosaries.

Lydia Turner recently spoke to our Confirmation students. Lydia went to Teen Impact Camp, held at Ripon College this past summer. While there, she had the opportunity to join in community activities, listen to speakers and visit the Capitol. She conveyed the importance of protecting life and making the right choices in unplanned pregnancy situations. She was sponsored by Green Lake Chapter of WRTL, and this year they will be able to send 3 students who wish to go.

BAPTISM

Baptism dates are arranged through the parish offices. First time parents are required to attend baptism preparation program before the baptism of their child. Please call the parish office for more information.

MARRIAGE

To Schedule a wedding date, call the parish office. The common policy of the Diocese of Madison requires a 6-month minimum notice. We strongly recommend at least one year in advance.

ANOIDNTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office to arrange individual celebrations.
