WEEKLY BULLETIN

Silva Linings

with Father John

Today's readings provide clear and inspiring reminders of the most fundamental aspect of our identity — that of servants of our most high and holy God, His modern-day disciples and stewards.

In the first reading, from Isaiah, we hear the voice of the “Suffering Servant” — prophetic words of Jesus Christ. “Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb.” How beautiful! Even from the first moment of his conception in the womb of our Blessed Mother, Jesus’ saving mission had begun. This is true for each one of us. The Father has called each of us from the moment of our conception for a unique mission to further His kingdom on the earth. Each one of us can truly say the Father has “formed me as his servant from the womb.”

To be his servant is all that truly matters in this life, for ourselves and for our children. Career paths, athletic accomplishments, the school we attend or the city in which we live — all are secondary to the thing that matters most — that we have been called from the womb for the privilege of being God’s servants. Do our daily lives reflect this high calling? Do we use the gifts of our time, talents and treasure in service of God’s kingdom, and do we guide our children to do the same, for that is why God has entrusted these things to us?

Our second reading, from St. Paul’s letter to the Corinthians, gives us another reminder of our true identity as God’s servants and the high calling we have as Christian stewards. St. Paul greets the Corinthians, and us as well, with this description: “To you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy...” We are called to nothing less than holiness. After all, only the holy can enter heaven.

John the Baptist recognized the holiness of Jesus and the response due to Him when he encountered Christ in person on the day they met at the Jordan River. His response, which we read in our Gospel passage from St. John was, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world... He is the one of whom I said, ‘A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.’”

What a powerful description of our Lord and the place He should rightfully have in each of our lives. He is truly our Savior, the only one who can free us from our sinfulness. We are utterly and completely dependent on His power, love and mercy. Therefore, He truly does “rank ahead” of us; he deserves to be first, above all other priorities and plans in our lives. Again, let us examine our daily lives, and encourage our children to do the same.

Does the way I spend my time reflect that God comes first? Do prayer and weekly Mass, regular confession and time with my family “rank ahead” of everything else on my calendar? Do I use my talents, skills and energy to serve my family, parish and community in thanksgiving and recognition that God’s kingdom ranks ahead of any other goals or ambitions? Do I spend my money and use my material possessions so as to glorify God?

Challenge questions, to be sure. But questions worthy of our high calling as Christian stewards offered a glorious mission in service of our Lord and His kingdom. What will our response be?

Eucharistic Adoration

All Saints Church has Adoration on Wednesdays from 8:30am—3:30pm.
We invite anyone who has time to stop in for a visit with our Eucharistic Lord.

You are welcome to come any time, for any amount of time, whether it’s an hour or only a few minutes.

ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND FAITH FORMATION

Epiphany Blessing at All Saints Catholic School

Father Andrew Showers visited our school on January 6, the traditional date of the Epiphany. He explained the tradition of blessing our doors with blessed chalk on this feast day and then blessed all the classrooms. He is pictured here with the 3K students.

The inscription above each door is:
20+C+M+B+23

The numbers stand for the year in which the blessing is inscribed (2023). The letters stand for the names traditionally given the Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They are also an abbreviation for the Latin blessing: Christus mansionem benedicat, or "Christ bless this dwelling." The plus signs represent the cross.

Registration for Middle School LBH is open! Students in grades 6th-8th are welcome to attend. This year we will be traveling to Cassville, WI, to St. Charles Borromeo Church from July 17th-20th. Contact Michelle Wolff to register: mwolff@allsaintsberlin.org or 920-361-5252.

A Men's Retreat is being offered at the Jesuit Retreat House in Oshkosh January 19-22, 2023. Jesus calls us and invites us to take time off to rest... The weekend includes daily Mass, periods for private reflection and devotions, spiritual direction, and reconciliation and healing services. Register at www.jesuitretreathouse.org or call 920-231-9060. Space is limited so register soon.
